for 85 Cents!

This famous confection that's liked everywhere—that benefits everyone—that's constant delicious and inexpensive aid to teeth, breath, appetite and digestion —is now selling for less than a cent a stick—by the box!
Take it home tonight!

It's clean, pure, healthful if it's Wrigley's

CAUTION!

The great popularity of the clean, pure, healthful WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT is causing unscrupulous persons to wrap rank imitations that are not even real chewing gum so they resemble genuine WRIGLEY'S. The better class of stores will not try to fool you with these imitations. They will be offered to you principally by street fakirs, peddlers and the candy departments of some 5 and 10 cent stores. These rank imitations cost dealers one cent a package or even less and are sold to careless people for almost any price. If you want Wrigley's look before you buy. Get what you pay for. Be SURE it's WRIGLEY'S.

We are inserting the above caution solely to protect our customers, who are continually writing us that they have been deceived by imitations which they purchased thinking they were WRIGLEY'S.

BOY SHOTS SELF IN EXPERIMENT

Enery Horvath Will Lose Hand as Result of Shotgun Test
While Alone.

While his father and younger brother were attending church in South Bend Sunday morning according to their custom, Enery Horvath, 16 years old, decided to stay home on his uncle's farm four miles south of the city and experiment with a shot gun. He blew a hole in his hand and amputation will be necessary according to Dr. Oscar Von Barand, who attended him. The boy was taken to the Epworth hospital.

Enery usually accompanied his uncle and brother, who is 14 years old. He and his brother came to south Bend from Hungary to join their father three months ago. They have all lived on the farm of the uncle, Florian Horvath.

The accident occurred while Enery was jumping through a fence, shot gun in hand.

Good Cheer Aids Digestion of Food

Dyspeptics Can Make the Rest of the Family Happy by Using a Laxative-Tonic.

The temper of the family and the good cheer around the table depend so much on the good digestion of each individual present that the experiences of some former dyspeptics who overcame their trouble should be of interest to those now suffering in this way.

The best advice one can give—but it is advice that is seldom heeded—is to eat slowly and masticate each mouthful carefully. However, if slow eating and careful mastication fail the next aid is one close to nature, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.
This remedy is an excellent digestant, and in addition to helping in the digestion of the food, acts gently on the accumulation of waste that should long ago have been passed off. It is safe, reliable, pleasant-tasting, and results are guaranteed.

Major S. Martin, of Joplin, Mo., now 77, thinks Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has helped him a longer and happier life. He has not felt so good in years as he has since taking this excellent medicine, and in spite of his 77 years he says he feels like a boy.

It is the ideal remedy for indigestion, no matter how severe; constipation, no matter how chronic, biliousness, headaches, gas on the stomach, drowsiness after eating and similar annoyances.

You can obtain Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at any drug store for

MAJ. S. MARTIN

fifty cents or one dollar, the latter size being bought by heads of families already familiar with its merits. Results are always guaranteed or money will be refunded.

When you use Syrup Pepsin you will see the fallacy of chewing mints and tablets or of taking cathartics, salts, pills and similar drastic medicines. Unlike these, Syrup Pepsin does not lose its good effects, and by automatically training the stomach and bowels muscles to do their work, soon restores these organs to normal.

Families wishing to try a free sample bottle can obtain it postpaid by addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 419 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. A postal card with your name and address on it will do.

LITTLE SISTERS OF POOR DEPART

St. Anthony's Convent Ordered Closed by Bishop Alerding—Father DeGroote Pays High Tribute to Work.

The sweet faces and modest garb of the Little Sisters of the Poor will be seen no more on their missions of charity in South Bend.

St. Anthony's convent at 222 S.
Scott st., which for 14 years has been the center of one of the noblest works in the city will be closed this week, at the command of Bishop Alerding, of Ft. Wayne. The six Little Sisters will go to Gary to take charge of a hospital there.

St. Anthony's convent was opened in South Bend 14 years ago, two nuns having been sent to the city from the mother convent at Ft. Wayne at the request of a priest who saw the need of their work here. As the city has grown and the need increased, the number has been raised to six and their place will not easily be filled.
They have carried on a work in the congested part of the city similar to that of the visiting nurse, except that they depended for their living entirely upon voluntary offerings. They have never set a price upon their services but have accepted only what those whom they have served felt able to pay which was very often nothing at all. When there was a sister in the convent to answer it, however, no call has ever been refused.

Rev. John F. DeGroote in his sermons at St. Patrick's church Sunday, paid high tribute to the work of the sisters and expressed deep regret at their departure.

The proper name of the order to which they belong is the Poor Handmaids of Jesus Christ, but they are more generally known here as the Little Sisters of the Poor. The order was founded in Germany in 1851.
They began their labors in the United States in 1868 through the efforts of Rev. John Leurs, at that time a Bishop of Ft. Wayne and Rev. Edward Koenig, pastor of St. Paul's church at Ft. Wayne. St. Joseph hospital and convent was established there in 1889.

NEW MIDDLE CLASS HOPE OF MEXICO

Y. M. C. A. Missionary Worker Asserts Education of People Along Christian Lines Will Solve Problem.

"Hope for the solution of the Mexican problems lies in the new forming middle-class," said Rev. A.
E. Turner, Y. M. C. A. missionary worker from Mexico, in an address at the local association building to over 100 men Sunday afternoon.

He said that there is slowly forming in Mexico a middle class which realizes the oppression of the old forms of government and through education has come to see the need of better management of affairs.

"During the past few years the country has had an educational awakening," he said. "It has developed and progressed industriously, due to the foresight of this new middleman. For the first time he is given a chance to learn, and his ignorance removed, the middleman resolves to resent the cruel treatment of the haughty masters.

That still greater educational institutions be furnished and that Christianity be instituted as the only method of equipping the middleman with an ability to save the nation, was the assertion of the secretary. He showed that the Mexican country was wealthy in industrial provisions, that with the labor there, properly mustered it could be made an important commercial nation. In addition to being able to furnish the world with great commercial assistance, the country is situated in a position where it could be of great value to evangelizing heathen Latin America.

Rev. Turner referred briefly to the leaders who had taken advantage of the war for liberty and selfishly made an effort to secure as much loot from fallen cities as possible. He asserted that he believed that President Wilson will be able to settle the trouble there without intervention, and said that Christianity must be back of the men that are put at the head of the government before the trouble would be settled.

A CONSUMPTIVE COUGH.

A cough that bothers you continually is one of the danger signals which warns of consumption. Dr. King's New Discovery stop that cough, loosen the chest, banish fever and let you sleep peacefully. The first dose checks the symptoms and gives prompt relief. Mrs. A. F. Mertz, of Glen Elyn, Iowa, writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery cured a stubborn cough after six weeks' doctoring failed to help." Try it, as it will do the same for you. Best medicine for coughs, colds, throat and lung troubles. Money back if it fails. Price 50c and $1.00. Recommended by all dealers.—Advertisement.
